

Safety Manager 11-12-09

Manchester Tank and Equipment, a leading manufacturer of low-pressure vessels in North America is seeking an experienced industrial safety professional. This person will be responsible for ensuring compliance with OSHA and company safety and health requirements, provide technical expertise to guide and support plant safety efforts, establish effective procedures for incident analysis and develop systems to ensure effective safety and health programs. Job duties include workers' compensation, safety training, auditing, coaching, developing and maintaining safety programs and best practices, records maintenance and reports as needed. This "hands on" position is based in Crossville TN.

Candidate requirements:

BA/BS in Occupational Safety or related field

5-7 years of hands on experience in a manufacturing environment.

Excellent communication (written and verbal) and interpersonal skills

Proven leadership skills

Self starter – ability to recognize and react to opportunities and situations

Strong computer skills

Ability to adapt in different environments

CSP certification preferred.

Send resumes to:

PO Box 1030

Crossville, TN 38557

Or

careers@mantank.com

EOE

Females and minorities are encouraged to apply